Competition Information

- The Film the House competition for 2023 is now open – if you're a student or independent scriptwriter, director or filmmaker take a look at www.filmthehouse.co.uk for more details about this parliamentary-based competition.
- Film the House is a parliamentary-based short film competition for student and independent filmmakers based in the UK. Find out more about how to get involved at www.filmthehouse.co.uk
- Film the House provides a means for the UK creative industries to communicate the importance of protecting their intellectual property rights in a fun manner which gives a foundation for Parliamentarians to push hard to protect creative output and for MPs' constituents to interact with their local MP (perhaps for the first time).

IP and creative industries

- Film the House was set up by former MP Mike Weatherley to “educate Parliamentarians about the importance of the creative industries to the British economy and how, without protecting intellectual property, we are putting important industries and revenue streams in jeopardy.”
